

Our Living Collection

Our Living Collection is a great way of opening up talks between staff members who wouldn't otherwise meet. These talks help staff members to hear lived experiences in their colleagues own words. A chance to share best practices and challenge bias or intolerance in a safe place.

Scan for more information:

