

Our Living Collection

Our Living Collection is a great way of opening up conversations between staff members who wouldn't normally meet each other and through these conversations enable us to support colleagues in the workplace, share best practice and positively challenge prejudice or discrimination in a safe environment.

