Kortext App

If you would like to access books via the Kortext app, you will need to create a Kortext account.

To do this, go to app.kortext.com/login, enter the e-mail address associated with your NHS OpenAthens account in the sign-in box, and click 'Forgotten Password'. Choose a password for your Kortext account.

Your Kortext account is now created.

(Note that you need to do this on the desktop. Only after you have created your account will you be able to access eBooks via the Kortext app.)

Discover Content

When you login in to Kortext you will see a Books and a Collections tab.

Books- this is your bookshelf. It is where all the books you have opened may be found for the duration of the loan period. At the end of the loan period, they will expire and be removed from your bookshelf.

Collection – this is where all the books to which you have access may be found. Search for a title or browse. Selecting and opening a book will add it to your bookshelf.

If you dont have an OpenAthens account you can sign up here:
